

SUMMARY OF INCIDENT

About 1800 hours on Wednesday 8 January 1997, the body of a 51 years old female was found within her home at 43 Irvine Road, Kilmarnock. The deceased a known Paranoid Schizophrenic was found with a pair of scissors through her throat. There was no sign of any forced entry to the house. A post mortem is being arranged.

With reference to item 1 of the report dated 9 January 1997, concerning the suspicious death of a 51 years old female at 43 Irvine Road, Kilmarnock, following a post mortem the incident is now being treated as murder.